

STANFORD UNIVERSITY
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

RICHARD K. LAZARUS
Director of Admissions and Student Affairs

February 13, 1976

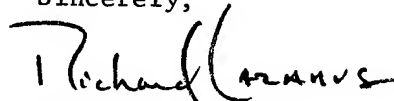

STANFORD, CALIFORNIA 94305

Vernon A. Walters
Lieutenant General
United States Army
Quarters 22B, Lee Avenue
Fort Myer, Virginia 22211

Dear General Walters:

Thank you very much for your letter of recommendation for Philippe Zitron. Please be assured that his application will receive every consideration.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Richard Lazarus", with a stylized flourish at the end.

Richard K. Lazarus

1j1

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

ILLEGIB

Washington, D. C.
6 February 1976

Mr. Lyle C. Gainsley
Registrar and Director of Admissions
University of California
University Hall
Berkeley, California 94720

Dear Mr. Gainsley:

It was with the greatest pleasure that I learned recently of the application to the University of California Berkeley Graduate School of Business Administration of Philippe Zitrone, the son of Léon Zitrone, who is a long-standing personal friend of mine. A distinguished and influential French television journalist and commentator, Léon Zitrone has been, for over twenty-five years, one of the leading Frenchmen in his profession. He also has a deep knowledge and appreciation of the United States.

The fact, indeed that Léon Zitrone is now desirous of giving his son direct experience of the best that American education can offer by study at the University of California Berkeley Graduate School of Business Administration is confirmation of the need he has always seen to promote the benefits of transatlantic understanding through active participation in professional fields.

His only son, Philippe, is a twenty-one year-old graduate of the prestigious Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris who is already completing an additional degree in law.

I am sure that the Admissions Department will give Philippe Zitrone's application its best attention, as I am sure that you will understand that I am writing in a personal, rather than an official, capacity.

Yours very sincerely,

Vernon A. Walters
Lieutenant General
United States Army

Washington, D. C.
6 February 1976

Mr. Fred A. Hargadon
Dean of Admissions
Stanford University
Stanford, California 94305

Dear Mr. Hargadon:

It was with the greatest pleasure that I learned recently of the application to the Stanford Graduate School of Business of Philippe Zitrone, the son of Léon Zitrone, who is a long-standing personal friend of mine. A distinguished and influential French television journalist and commentator, Léon Zitrone has been, for over twenty-five years, one of the leading Frenchmen in his profession. He also has a deep knowledge and appreciation of the United States.

The fact, indeed that Léon Zitrone is now desirous of giving his son direct experience of the best that American education can offer by study at the Stanford Graduate School of Business is confirmation of the need he has always seen to promote the benefits of transatlantic understanding through active participation in professional fields.

His only son, Philippe, is a twenty-one year-old graduate of the prestigious Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris who is already completing an additional degree in law.

I am sure that the Admissions Department will give Philippe Zitrone's application its best attention, as I am sure that you will understand that I am writing in a personal, rather than an official, capacity.

Yours very truly,

Vernon A. Walters
Lieutenant General
United States Army

Next 4 Page(s) In Document Exempt

ILLEGIB

Washington, D. C.

29 December 1975

Mr. Dean W. Currie
Director of Masters and Business Administration
Graduate School of Business Administration
Harvard University
Boston, Massachusetts 02163

Dear Mr. Currie:

It was with the greatest pleasure that I learned recently of the application to the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration M.B.A. program of Philippe Zitrone, the son of Léon Zitrone, who is a long-standing personal friend of mine. A distinguished and influential French television journalist and commentator, Léon Zitrone has been, for over twenty-five years, one of the leading Frenchmen in his profession. He also has a deep knowledge and appreciation of the United States.

The fact, indeed, that Léon Zitrone is now desirous of giving his son direct experience of the best that American education can offer by study at the Harvard Business School is confirmation of the need he has always seen to promote the benefits of transatlantic understanding through active participation in professional fields.

His only son, Philippe, is a twenty-one year-old graduate of the prestigious Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris, who is already completing an additional degree in law.

I am sure that the Admissions Department will give Philippe Zitrone's application its best attention, as I am sure that you will understand that I am writing in a personal, rather than an official, capacity.

Yours very sincerely,

/s/ Vernon A. Walters

Vernon A. Walters
Lieutenant General
United States Army

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

ILLEGIB

Mr. Dean W. Currie
Director of Masters and Business Administration
Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration
Boston, Massachusetts 02163

Dear Mr. Currie,

It was with the greatest pleasure that I learned recently of the application to the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration M.B.A. program of Philippe Zitrone, the son of Leon Zitrone, who is a long-standing personal friend of mine. A distinguished and influential French television journalist and commentator, Leon Zitrone has been, for over twenty-five years, one of the leading Frenchmen in his profession. He also has a deep knowledge and appreciation of the United States.

The fact, indeed, that Leon Zitrone is now desirous of giving his son direct experience of the best that American education can offer by study at the Harvard Business School is confirmation of the need he has always seen to promote the benefits of transatlantic understanding through active participation in professional fields.

His only son, Philippe, is a twenty-one year-old graduate of the prestigious Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris, who is already completing an additional degree in law.

I am sure that the Admissions Department will give Philippe Zitrone's application its best attention, as I am sure that you will understand that I am writing in a personal, rather than an official, capacity.

Yours Very sincerely,

Vernon A. Walters
Lieutenant General, U.S.A.
~~Deputy Director for Central Intelligence~~

STAT

Approved For Release 2003/07/09 : CIA-RDP80R01731R002200050004-3

Approved For Release 2003/07/09 : CIA-RDP80R01731R002200050004-3